CODE OF CONDUCT FOR REGISTERED EXPORTERS

We, the manufacturer/merchant exporters whose manufacturers and goods are exported from India, do hereby take a pledge that we shall in all our dealings in the International Trade strictly abide by and adhere to principles set out hereunder.

1. We appreciate and value the high ethical standards in business and are convinced in our belief only on such standard a permanent and lasting international, trade between any countries can be built up. We give the solemn assurance that we shall abide by and conduct ourselves in a manner that confirms to high ethical standards in business.
2. We undertake to strictly fulfill all contractual obligations made in good faith to buyers and through them of their consumers.
3. We agree to continuously strive to improve our manufacturers and goods and subject these to any desired or prescribed inspection before packing and dispatch.
4. We undertake that all our stamping and making on the goods and manufacturers will correctly describe their quality and measure.
5. We agree to adhere to the time of delivery and specifications of our contract as far as it is humanly possible subject to the act of God or force majeure.
6. We agree to adhere to contractual specifications of the basic samples submitted and approved by the buyer within internationally accepted trade tolerance.
7. We shall endeavour our utmost to satisfy the requirements of the buyers. A complaint from the buyer that any of the obligations have not been fulfilled, we undertake to enquire into and settle the complaint as promptly and amicably, using where necessary the good offices of the Export Promotion Council, commodity Board or other Organisation which exists in India for the Export of promoting and assisting authority as arbitrator, in which event we shall abide by the procedure prescribed in the contract.
 - (a) In case of any commercial dispute concerning the garment trade between the members of AEPC, the same shall be referred to and decided by the Committee of AEPC whose decision shall be final and in the event committee shall have the power to have the dispute decided by arbitrator/arbitrators from the Panel of arbitrators appointed by AEPC.
 - (b) And in the case of any dispute between a member of the AEPC with AEPC each party will be entitled to select and appoint one arbitrator and the arbitrators so appointed will decided the disputes under the Indian Arbitration Act, 1948
 - (c) No Court, shall have jurisdiction to entertain any of the disputes, mentioned above. The decision of the Committee/ Arbitrator, Arbitration as the case may be, will be final and binding on the parties concerned.

Yours faithfully,

For and on behalf of M/s
